Mission: To provide specialized facilities engineering, technology, and expeditionary equipment life cycle management; to support delivery and maintenance of quality, sustainable facilities; to acquire and manage capabilities for the Navy's expeditionary combat forces; to provide contingency engineering response; and to enable energy security and environmental stewardship. The NAVFAC Engineering and Expeditionary Warfare Center delivers products and services that are centralized for economy and efficiency, centrally manages and executes assigned programs throughout the enterprise, and provides specialized acquisition expertise to enable NAVFAC's global programs. It supports NAVFAC HQ, NAVFAC Echelon 3 and 4 commands, the NAVFAC Expeditionary Programs Office, the Navy Expeditionary Combat Command, Naval Beach Groups and other Navy expeditionary units ashore, and other supported commands.

*(SNDL: Standard Navy Distribution List; UIC: Unit Identification Code; and PLA: Plain Language Address)

** (UICs will be retained under the new command for pay/financial accounting purposes.)

4. Action

a. Commander, Naval Facilities Engineering Command will take appropriate action to disestablish and establish subject shore commands, and will, consistent with reference (a), issue a
