OPNAV NOTICE 5400

From: Chief of Naval Operations

Subj: DISESTABLISHMENT OF COMMANDER, FIRST NAVAL CONSTRUCTION DIVISION AND COMMANDER, NAVAL CONSTRUCTION FORCE COMMAND PACIFIC; MODIFICATION OF TWENTIETH SEABEE READINESS GROUP AND THIRTY FIRST SEABEE READINESS GROUP

Ref: (a) OPNAVINST 5400.44A
(b) OPNAVNOTE 5400 Ser DNS-33/12U102150 of 01 Oct 2012
(Canc frp: Oct 2013)

1. Purpose. To approve the disestablishment of First Naval Construction Division/Naval Construction Force Command Atlantic and Naval Construction Force Command Pacific, and the modification of Twentieth Seabee Readiness Group (20th SRG) and Thirty First Seabee Readiness Group (31st SRG), per reference (a).

2. Background

a. Commander, U.S. Fleet Forces Command (COMUSFLTFORCOM) and Commander, U.S. Pacific Fleet (COMPACFLT) directed the disestablishment of Commander, First Naval Construction Division (COMFIRSTNCD)/Naval Construction Force Command Atlantic and Commander, Naval Construction Force Command Pacific (COMNAVCONFORCOMPAC). Type commander (TYCOM) functions are currently distributed between Commander, Navy Expeditionary Combat Command (COMNECC)/COMFIRSTNCD for Atlantic construction forces and COMNECC Pacific (COMNECCPAC)/COMNAVCONFORPAC for Pacific construction forces. This action is a headquarters (HQ) organizational efficiency initiative designed to eliminate duplicative TYCOM functions, create a single staff, and, thereby, reduce overhead costs. COMNECC will provide the administrative control (ADCON) HQ oversight of Atlantic construction forces and COMNECCPAC will provide the ADCON HQ oversight of Pacific construction forces. COMFIRSTNCD and COMNAVFORCONPAC shall be disestablished and like work transferred to COMNECC and COMNECCPAC.

b. COMNECC flag officer will continue to be dual-hatted as COMNECCPAC. COMFIRSTNCD flag officer will be re-assigned as the deputy commander for NECC and NECCPAC; and, in addition to other responsibilities, may be tasked with training, leading, and deploying an NECC battle staff in support of a contingency under the operational control (OPCON) of a combatant commander, Navy component commander, or numbered fleet commander as directed.

c. COMFIRSTNCD and COMNAVCONFORCOMPAC currently serve as echelon 4 group commanders who integrate Title 10 requirements to man, train, maintain, and equip assigned forces. They report ADCON directly to the TYCOMs, COMNECC and COMNECCPAC, respectively. The 20th SRG and the 31st SRG will be modified to take over as the echelon 4 group commanders. The naval construction group concept leverages the staffs of two distinct and separate commands, the SRG and the active naval construction regiment (NCR), by assigning the SRG commander as the group commander and the deputy NCR commander as the deputy group commander, in order to provide the full scope of ADCON and OPCON of assigned forces.

(1) The 31st SRG located at Naval Base Ventura County, Port Hueneme, CA will be renamed as Naval Construction Group ONE (NAVCONSTGRU ONE) and shift ADCON from COMNAVCONFORCOMPAC to COMNECCPAC. The Pacific naval construction forces (NCF) (regiments, battalions, units, teams) will be re-aligned under this group commander.

(2) The 20th SRG located at Construction Battalion Center Gulfport, MS will be renamed as Naval Construction Group TWO (NAVCONSTGRU TWO) and shift ADCON from COMFIRSTNCD to COMNECC. The Atlantic NCFs (regiments, battalions, units, teams) will be re-aligned under this group commander.

d. COMNECC and COMNECCPAC will phase in the organizational changes during 2013.
